IRISH LEADER HOPES FOR A NEW IRELAND

(By Associated Press.)

For this purpose the ground is now being graded. The hoisting plant now has on route one 60-horsepower Fairbanks-Morse & company hoist, one 100-horsepower Fairbanks-Morse & company vertical cylinder engine to be used as a generation plant, and one 120-horsepower Duplex Western gas engine to run one 700 cubic foot free air Sullivan compound compressor. SECOND HIGHEST HEAT SPELL FOR TONOPAH

It is a ray of satisfaction to the water he will be delighted to know that the present July weather is not bearing the mark where it may look records. The last three days have shown a maximum reading of 87 at the weather bureau station under a shelter where the sun's rays do not penetrate. For this reason it may be said that 87 at the weather office means 85 on Main street, where the reflected rays add to the discomfort of pedestrians. The hottest spell on record here for July was reported by 1917 when a maximum of 96 was reached and the accumulated excess above normal was 131 degrees. For the current month the excess was 77 of a degree.

CROSSCUTTING ON DIVIDE CON. IS UNDER WAY

Divide Consolidated began cutting at the 200 level this morning, after sinking the shaft to the 220-foot point in order to provide a sump. The shaft will not stop at this point but will be continued to depth as soon as the station is cleared so as to be able to work in the crosscut and shaft at the same time. John H. Miller said this morning that the outlook was most promising and that values were found in all four ledges cut in sinking to the station. The first vein was cut at 75 feet, the second at 125, the third at 160 and the fourth at the 200 without any of these being the main fracture of the district, although they all dipped at angles of 50 to 65 degrees in that direction where values of importance are expected at intersection with the cross-fissures. The crosscut from the 200 will be driven 150 or 200 feet to the northwest.

RETIMBERING ON THE BELCHER X

On the Belcher Extension, Engineer Roberts is making good headway with retimbering the old 400-foot shaft where the work will be completed as quickly as the timbers can be placed. A crosscut will be sent out from the 400 and exploration begun in earnest. The old station at the 100-foot point where over 200 feet of work was done by the people who sank the shaft, has not caused any delay as the management believes in spending its money on the bottom where the crosscut will disclose whether the immense ledge drifted on at the 100 improves at depth. Mr. Roberts is not saying anything about this ledge as he believes in going ahead instead of in time prospecting on the way down. After the shaft is completed, permanent development of the estate will begin along lines that have already been laid down for co-ordination of effort.

NO TIME NOW TO DESERT EUROPE

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 17.—Senator Taft, Republican of Rhode Island, told the senate he supported the principles of the league of nations covenant but withheld judgment regarding certain reservations. He did not believe the league would create a superstate or subvert the American constitution, but he believed the Monroe doctrine must be safeguarded and domestic questions left for national action. He said he believed the great mass of American people favored the league as a means to prevent future war and that it was undeliberate for America to desert Europe, France and Italy when the world is in chaos. America must be a member of the league as providing the only machinery for restoration of peace and order.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 17.—Senator Colt, Republican from Rhode Island, after a conference with President Wilson, said he believed the president could make a complete exposition of the Shantung question. He intimated that President Wilson might make an open statement.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 17.—The president began conferences today with Republican senators on the peace treaty and the league of nations. Senator McCumber, North Dakota, a supporter of the treaty and covenant was the first caller. Johnson of California and Borah of Idaho, bitter opponents of the league, are expected to be on the list invited but some doubt is expressed as to whether they will accept.

Without a record vote or debate the senate adopted the resolution of Senator Borah of Idaho, asking the president to send to the senate "if not incompatible with public interests," a copy of the protest said to have been made by some members of the American peace commission against the Shantung provision in the peace treaty.

Senator Sherman of Illinois urged the senate to refuse compliance with Shantung provision of the treaty of peace. He declared the provision "so favors persons who professed altruism with which the league of nations is heralded as to crown it as the superlative treachery in modern history." He said the provision would make Japan the sabre rattler of the world and would strengthen her for the day when, like Germany, she might try for a world empire. In such event the senator said, with British Japanese and Oriental interests identical, the United States might well look to the safety of the Philippines. He said the expulsion of Germany gave Japan no rights in China.

The harshness of Japanese occupation methods was likened to Germany in Belgium. Japan promised to withdraw in a limited time and return Shantung to China but, Senator Sherman said, whenever Japan pledged herself to the temporary occupation of Asia she occupied permanently. He said a union of Germany and Japan was no impossible event. He said our denial of the Japanese right of immigration was a wound to their pride. The United States was vulnerable in the Philippines, he said.

Senator Sherman asserted the Japanese emperor was supreme commander of the army and navy, who declares war, makes peace and concludes treaties. The kaiser never was more powerful. Japan will add Chinese province to province until an Asiatic kaiser will dominate Asia and the Pacific ocean. He charges that Great Britain's lifeblood is foreign trade. She has been devoid of sentiment and, sometimes, of humanity in breaking rivals.

"We are on the threshold of experimenting in foreign trade. We can defend ourselves. It will be heavy price to pay but it must be paid."

The witness said he considered that one of the causes of the war because it made the French and Germans suspicious of each other.
